

Sammie Smiles Podcast Practice:

Welcome:

Welcome your listeners to your show. Make sure and mention your podcast name and your name as the host.

Guest Intro:

Tell the listeners who your guest is and maybe a sentence or two about what they do or how you know them

Questions:

Start with 3 questions. Make sure they are not just yes/no questions. Say a little something before you ask the question that ties into it

Example: I love helping out at my local Boys and Girls Club. I know you help out with a few charities; can you tell me what made you want to start helping out?

Rapid Fire Round:

This is where you ask some fun general questions and the guest answers with first thing that comes to their mind

Example: Favorite Animal, Favorite food, Pepsi or Gatorade, Best Superhero, would you rather

Last Question:

Something you can ask all of your guests:

Example: Sammie always asks "What is something that makes you smile"

Ending:

Thank your guest for coming and listeners for listening.

Tagline:

Something you say every episode

Example: Sammie always says, "Remember that you don't have to be an adult to make a difference, you can be a kid too."

You can watch Sammie Smiles on YouTube or listen on Apple Podcast & Spotify to get some ideas! Sammie has interviewed lots of guests of all ages that are doing lots of different things.

Now you try!

Sammie Smiles Podcast Practice:

Podcast name:

First guest (classmate/family member):

Welcome:

Guest intro:

Questions (3):

1

2

3

Sammie Smiles Podcast Practice:

Rapid Fire Questions (4):

1

2

3

4

Last Question:

Ending:

Tagline:

Extra credit: Create podcast cover art.

Please note:

Interview is just one form of podcast!

Other types to try:

Conversational podcasts....talking back and forth

Monologue podcasts....just the host talking (nonfiction/narrative)

Theatrical podcasts....drama or maybe musical

Storytelling.....telling a story (scripted)

Inspire the WORLD